Scott Crosby's practice primarily focuses on commercial & business litigation, family law and insurance litigation & coverage.

Mr. Crosby's practice has included tax controversies and general commercial litigation, with a particular interest in two areas of workers' compensation: premium fraud and subrogation. In his family law practice, he represents clients in divorce litigation involving both property and custody matters. With his varied practice, Mr. Crosby splits his time between state and federal court practice in Memphis, and, outside of Memphis, he has appeared in federal courts in bankruptcy and commercial litigation matters across Tennessee and in Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Arkansas.

Scott Crosby joined the firm in 1995 after serving for five years as a Trial Attorney in the United States Department of Justice, Tax Division in Washington, D.C. He has been a Member of the firm since 1999.

Mr. Crosby has been recognized by distinguished organizations such as Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America® in the area of Commercial Litigation and Family Law since 2018.
