Patrick Treadwell joined Burch, Porter and Johnson, PLLC in July 2026. Prior to joining BPJ, Patrick represented clients in a variety of legal matters, including Family Law, Medicaid and estate planning, and probate proceedings.

Before attending law school, Patrick earned his B.A. in History from Amherst College and obtained a post-baccalaureate certificate in Pre-Medical Studies from NYU. Patrick earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, where he was recognized with multiple honors, including the Robert L. Spence Moot Court Award, the Honorable David S. Kennedy Bankruptcy Achievement Award, and the Dean's Distinguished Pro Bono Service Award. While in law school, Patrick interned with U.S. House Judiciary Committee, clerked for the Honorable James Russell of the Shelby County Circuit Court, and performed research for various faculty members. He is a member of the Tennessee State Bar and has experience working in both private practice and public interest law.

In his spare time, Patrick enjoys getting outdoors with his daughter, exercise, working on cars, and going to the movies.
